Greetings from the Big Sky Country

This map was designed both for your convenience and for your pleasure . . . we want to entice you to stay longer in this wonderful state.

We have everything to make your stay pleasant; lots of room, miles of modern highways, scenic attractions unequalled in the world, clear rushing water and clean air.

From Makoshika State Park to Libby Dam . . . from Yellowstone to Glacier National Parks . . . you will marvel at Montana . . . it is all yours.

Meet our friendly people and enjoy yourself. I extend to you my personal welcome.

Sincerely yours,

Tim Babcock

The Treasure State

Montana, for centuries the home of Indians and buffalo, was first seen by white men—the Vermorels, French fur traders—in 1742.

Montana was explored by Lewis and Clark in 1805 and 1806. The first permanent white settlement was St. Mary's Mission at Stevensville, founded in 1841...

Montana is a rich gold state. In 1864, a rich gold strike at Banquo brought a rush of prospectors. With gold discoveries at Virginia City and Helena, thousands more followed.

The fourth largest state, Montana averages 500 miles in length and 275 miles in width. The Continental Divide runs through the center of the state.

The growing discovery of buffalo and the failure of the fur trade led to the decline of the Indian population. In 1876, a year later the major battles ended with Chief Sitting Bull's death.
